Yogic abilities are barr towards self realisation. More siddhis; more difficult to realise the self.

It is the cacophony of the EGO that I have siddhis and I want to exercise those powers...Buddha also said this that Siddhis are a great barrier towards NIRVANA...

So I came here with Krishna's curse cause less yogic ability , more easier to get self realisation.

My goal was to dive into deep eternal peace- not into heap of siddhis...

Our guru taught us that also.

M Tungayath (1)

Raman pres will go to the post of Laxmi Narayana with his wife.

Narayan dev & Laxmi devi.

The temple will be : Laxmi Narayan temple - Bhopal.

They are blessed & healed couple.

Alamula ji will ascend to the post of Rudrani. She will be "Shri Rudrani devi." A ferocious Matrika living in Rudraloka.

Ramana Pres's wife is now the goddess Sulochana the beautiful eyed daughter of Nagraj Shesha and his wife goddess Nagalaxmi. She was in a Sati & was married to Meghnad - Ravana's gallant son. She was a Rama devotee.

The Chetana on top of Satyaloka whom Kashmir Shaivism calls Kalasankarshini Kali, it is like a flame - Pure consciousness, beyond Self Realisation is also termed as Brahmanior

② Brahman in Shankaracharya alam. Vaishnavas call them
Srimadhads or Madhavi.
Has other names also
in other Vaishnav sects.
Buddhists call them
Tyoirmoy or moyee.

They are like almost transparent candle flame.
No causal ego also.

No Karan sharira, no
form of white lotus also.
Very close to Supreme Being. Sits in his lap.

Very few yogis can go there. Maximum number of yogis who can sit there is 7. So 7 is a spiritual number. Then starts the satyaloka

where self Realised saints reside with causal bodies.

Yogis can meditate and see up to last 7 kalpas.
Then rest is absorbed into <sup>para</sup> Brahman. In last kalpa there were 3 yogis

③ sitting there. Then 2 kalpas were empty. Then <sup>there were</sup> 5 of 6 yogis there <sup>in another kalpas.</sup> Then again one was empty. This one is full of one of another will sit there. This depends on how well the kalpa is functioning. The good the beings, the good yogis will be there. So the chances of Brahmanis, Jyotismoyee or Sriramadhab will increase who will ascend beyond nirvana & sit in the lap of Supreme Being. He is touch Brahman actually. They are very rare. So no one talks about them. They can churn huge peace from Supreme Godhead & when they take birth they can liberate more souls than standard self realised saints. Needless to say they do not take birth here in earth plane cause if sinners come in their contact havoc catastrophe can take place due to their purest energy & aura. +

(4) These Jyotirmoyees or Brahmanis are called by Para Brahman himself. They ask their parents to send them to his Salivata lap.

The more the realised saints and Jyotirmoyees etc. increases more the peace will be chanced here in the cosmos.

They are peace keepers of the cosmos. They extract peace from Para Brahman & they send here so that we can function well. Less peace Less harmony. So they should increase in number so that Satyayug becomes long & cosmos becomes peaceful.

Less jivanmukta & jyotirmoy Less peace in the cosmos.

The yugas become short & then

Mahapuroy occurs. So pious

Satya yug should be long & elaborate. +

Yuktेश्वर says Rumpā is a Radical yogi.

⑦ When a Kalpa is created,
it is created with mantras
that any evil does will perish
and evil vidya of Saktas will eventually vanish from cosmos. This always happens.
So good things remain &
bad goes away.

"Kales nim aborjona jhen tiye Gidai Kora"

Kalpas are created after praloy
and Mahapraloys.

The Kalashankarshani Kali aka
Sri Madhabe or Brahman/mani, Jyotismoy are called Agnihotri Brahman also in yogic traditions.

They are the real Agnihotris. In real life they maintained the sacred fire
during fire rituals - yagna.

The invocation of agni in it.
But in cosmos it is the supreme Brahmin - column - pillar of light which they invoke to derive peace for ⑧ us. So they sit hear him in circle. Maximum number seven if they desire maximum amount of peace for us.

They take births in 4Ds.
Not here in 3ds. They can elevate souls with their pure presence only - not even Sadhana is needed.

The gods who has a post carries that energy. Like Shiva is a energy healer of retractor.
Vishnu is expansion. Kubera's vahana Mongoose gives mokey
when bored here like Elon Musk etc. Laxmi's also churh mokey. Brahma's can create.
So gods have that energy DNA.

Krishna's curse given to Guru
Sandipani which I am suffering

(10) from is still burning like hot iron. It was from Dwapar Yug. Jaggi has wrongfully instilled it on me. His soulmates has put it on me & my guru has passed it on <sup>to</sup> me to enlighten his devotees who are sinners & never does any sadhana. No yogi wants to take this crap curse which means loosing all yogic powers at once whatever great yogic powers you have even you be a realised saint your energy body will become prone to psychic & angelic attacks. He is a traditional guru so only sees self realisation than anything else though he says he asked me not to choose this soul contract. He should have removed this deadly curse from my soul contract. (15) Namaji will ascend to a fierce Kali post. He will be Marikanda Kali.

This is a Kali in which she absorbs the energies of cognition into herself. She operates in the cognitive world. †

Maharshi's hermitage is protected & healed. Ashwachalla Siva. †

The Realised Saints don't come here. They live in the causal planes. They use the energy of their evolved devotees to elevate other devotees. Specially the Rudras, Adityas, Agnis & Vayus. They are fast & fierce energies. So they use their energies to uplift the sinners & give them moksha. Moksha is not the goal of Rudras.

† They take birth in throat & agya chakra. Then do annihilation and merge into Brahman.

Agni/Vayu/Adityas become Rudras often & follow this path. So Realisation is not for all.

(16) It is for the sinners of one who dive into material world more. They do the Sadhana & realise their self and merge into brahman.
In causal plane also brahman
are more revered also gurus
can create Buddhas.
Not Taras. Taras can't generate more peace.
Buddhas can generate more peace. But if there is 2/3 Agnihotri in one Kalpa then the need for self realisation reduces and the causal plane realised saints are almost void in that respect
because Agnihotri sit in Para Brahman's lap & can churn massive peace which can run the cosmos properly.
Anjali will have peace &
harmony in his/her life. †

① The cosmos looks like a like this:

Supreme God → column of light.

Then almost transparent
flame (maximum 7 no.)
Sapta jyothi.

Then White Lotus

Then Golden Lotus

Then Blue Lotus

Then Rup Lokas

Then Apruha Lokas

Then Human Lokas

Then Danav / RAKSHAS Lokas

Then Lokas with deformed bodies.

The tantra calls jyotismoyee bides
"parabhairavi". It is between

Bhairav (Supreme self) & Bhairavi (realised saints). This is a flame which is translucent of Kalasankar

- Shanikari according to Kashmiri

Shairavism who sits upon realised saints & below supreme brahman.

They are only 7 in number.

(20) The reason is they are so peaceful that if they are more in number the cosmos can get destroyed. They can churn massive peace from Supreme Being. So they don't take birth in earth or 3d plane. They take birth in 4 dimensional planes to avoid sinners.

Sinners can get completely destroyed into debris if they come in their contact. So they are only 7 in number. They are called Sapta Rishis or 7 Yogis or 7 Agnihotris.

When they are 7 in number the cosmos is in harmony. But if they increase the cosmos can get destroyed cause there are sinners here very pure beings as pure light energies. In Rudra Tantra they are called Maha Rudrani. Supreme Being is Rudra. Realised Saints are Rudrani. +

— Lord Jagardan

Taking birth in pashu yoni is very hard. One soul loses all yogic abilities. It has no Chetana in that sense.

Very strong & pious souls can take birth in animal

wombs actually. Their egos, great abilities get suspended &
they arrive at moksha soon.

The Kalasankarshani Kali or

Jyotirmoyee or Maharudranis are created mostly during Satyayuga.

Least during Kaliyuga. But in this kalpa it is in Kaliyuga.

They are 7 in total theoretically but 6 is max. Else the cosmos will get destroyed due to purity.

They are pure energy. So sinners

(22) Will get destroyed & the cosmos will get annihilated if they increase from 6 actually.

The self realisation is a lovely experience. It should be like a bucket full of roses. Not thorns. So it is like moving to -wards Krishna Consciousness.
Krishna is lovely. Beautiful. So the experience should be like that scattering petals of blossoms in the roads and chanting sweet mantras. Enjoying the Leelas.
Not brutally destroying beings & things.
